CORRECTED FINANCIAL STATEMENT
AND GOOD-FAITH AFFIDAVIT

All Reports: A filer who files a corrected financial statement must submit a correction affidavit. The affidavit must identify the information that has changed.

Reports filed with Texas Ethics Commission: New state law requires all personal financial statements filed with the Ethics Commission to be filed electronically. All corrections to an electronically filed personal financial statement must also be filed electronically.

This correction affidavit can be used only for a personal financial statement that is filed on paper with the Ethics Commission before September 1, 2015, or a personal financial statement that is filed with a filing authority other than the Ethics Commission. Do not use this correction affidavit for a personal financial statement that is filed electronically with the Commission.

A corrected financial statement filed with the Ethics Commission after its due date is considered late for purposes of late-filing penalties unless: (1) any error or omission in the report as originally filed was made in good faith, and (2) the person filing the report files a corrected report and a good-faith affidavit not later than the 14th business day after the date the person learns that the report as originally filed is inaccurate or incomplete.
