Brooks mentioned that Ofcr of the Quarter started 14 years ago and the officers have raised the bar themselves by their morale and working with each other.

Offcr Headen thanked the CAB. And Cmdr Silva.

Citizen's Advisory Board Meeting
October 8, 2013

Cmdr Chaires thanked the CAB for the invite and he said he has heard a lot about the NE Cmd Ctr and congratulated Officer Headen.

Approval of minutes:

A motion was made and seconded to accept the minutes of September 10, 2013 as presented; motion carried.

Cmdr Silva mentioned that her Father is officially a CAB member and that her Mother's paperwork is in.

Cmdr Silva said that Commander's day was terrible, maybe it was done on the wrong date. Not giving up, will try again. All the guest speakers came. Cmdr Silva is going to ask for a volunteer to make phone calls to Managers to see which day will be better to have another Commander's Day and she thanked the CAB.

Commander's Report:

There was a stand off on Pebble Hills today from 8:00 am to 7:30 pm. Man wanted to commit suicide and was traced and found. The weapon was hidden in his car. Officers did a good job.

Murder over the week-end was couple of blocks from Commander Silva's house. Mother-in-law struggle to get gun from son-in-law (intoxicated) and the lady got shot in the chest and died the following day.

The northeast crime is down 11%. There are a lot of new business', and new people.

Cmdr also mentioned that there are (7) seven new recruits and started working today. Lost (3)three officers in the transaction.

There has been a couple of robberies (felonies), beer runs. Cmdr said that the department stores don't loose money. Officers loose time processing the paperwork, other than that, we are good.

Par Report by Cmdr Silva:

Cmdr Silva gave us flyers on Pride Day clean up info with a list of sites.

Cmdr Silva mentioned that Ofcr Slade Davis' son graduated as a police officer.

There were no questions/concerns from the members.

Citizen's Advisory Board Meeting

Committee Reports:

Jessie Ruelas was not here today because he went to Austin. Jessie was selected State President for the Law Enforcement Security.

Old Business:

None

New Business:

Brooks and Commander Silva are going to organize for next month, Commanders Day for the Neighborhood Watch, Block Captains.

The NE Command Ctr is not having kick off for Pride Day this year because it was on & off, on & off and at the end it was to late to contact the restaurants.

Ofcr Davis will be at the NE Cmd Ctr at 7:00 a.m.

Brooks & Fred brought 57 cases of water.

Citizen's Forum

Continue to call in graffiti 621-6789. You might get transfer to 311, non-emergency number. They will do the paper work.

Brooks mentioned that TX DOT is on schedule on the Loop 375 construction. Part of it will be open by December. Everything is on track.

Meeting adjourned

Respectfully submitted,

Graciela Sanchez, Acting Secretary
