OBJECTIVE

To utilize my thirty six years of diversified leadership, management, and professional planning experience to serve on the El Paso Zoning Board of Adjustments

PROFILE

Executive Director (retired), El Paso Metropolitan Planning Organization with expertise in staff management and development, supervised development of all regional transportation plans (Metropolitan Transportation Plan, Transportation Improvement Program, Congestion Management Program, Public Outreach Plans, and development of international and bi-state (Texas and New Mexico) transportation planning studies for the El Paso region. I have a strong and positive working relationship with local elected officials, city staff, as well as with staffs at the El Paso –Texas Department of Transportation and New Mexico Department of Transportation and with individuals in the highest levels of federal and state transportation agencies.

On December 7, 2012 El Paso mayor John Cook and the El Paso City Council presented me with the “Conquistador Award”, for my leadership in transportation. The Conquistador Award is the highest award the city uses to recognize the work and contributions made by an individual (public or private) for their contributions to improve El Paso’s quality of life.

EXPERIENCE

1999 – 2012: Executive Director, El Paso Metropolitan Planning Organization.
