Park Naming Policy - Amendment

PARKS AND RECREATION
City Council
February 3, 2020

Strategic Plan Alignment

Goal 4 - Enhance El Paso's Quality of Life through Recreational, Cultural and Educational Environments

Purpose

Revise current Park Naming Policy adding a section that allows City Council the authority to waive any requirement under the current policy following events of historical and or cultural significance for the City of El Paso as determined El Paso City Council.

Background

El Paso City Council has revised this Policy several times in the past.

Most recently on September 17, 2019.

Recommendations

Staff recommends City Council approve this amendment because it adds agility to the current process, and allows the City of El Paso respond to unforeseen situations more effectively.
