RE: Arves E. Jones Sr.

Dear Mayor Cook:

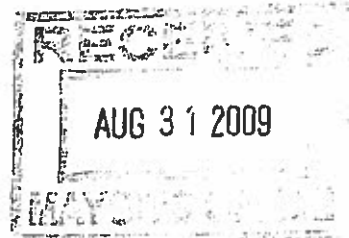

I am writing in support of a petition to name the new Sun Metro Bus terminal that will be located in Northeast El Paso after the late Arves Jones Sr., who was a dedicated public servant. He served our nation, our city and his community.

Mr. Jones served in the U.S. Marine Corps during World War II, and was honorably discharged after being awarded the Navy Cross, Purple Heart with two clusters, Bronze Star with Cluster, Silver Star, two U.S. Navy Unit Citations, and one Presidential Unit Citation. In addition, Mr. Jones was a community activist, and was elected to the Texas Legislature as a State Representative for three terms. He also served one term as a City Representative from District 4 and as Mayor Pro-Tem. I had the opportunity to work with him on auto emissions issues as it related to the 1990 Federal Clean Air Act amendments.

It is important to honor individuals in our community who have demonstrated civic leadership. I strongly support the naming of the Sun Metro Bus terminal in honor of Arves Jones Sr. If you need any additional information, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Kindest regards,

RE: Naming of Northeast Transfer Center

Dear Representative Chavez:

I am writing to thank you for your letter in support of naming the Northeast Transit Center after the late Arves Jones, Sr.. Mayor John Cook forwarded the letter to me for consideration.

Sun Metro's Citizen Advisory Committee has recommended to us that we actually solicit nominations for the Northeast Transfer Center of which a copy of the Press Release is enclosed. That deadline for nominations is July 1, 2010.

We also have a policy in place for naming transfer centers. Enclosed you will find a copy of the press release outlining the procedures for nominating the individual as well as the application and petition forms.

If you would fill out the application and get it back to me, we'll take care of the rest. I suspect we will discuss all the applications sometime in August 2010.

Please do not hesitate to call me if you need any additional information.

Sincerely,

Jay Banasiak

RE:   Naming of the Northeast Transfer Terminal

Dear Mr. Banasiak,

It is my desire that the new Northeast Transfer Terminal be named after Arves Edward Jones Sr. for the following reasons:

- Mr. Jones was a decorated veteran of the Armed Forces of the United States of America where he received numerous awards to include the Silver Star.
- Mr. Jones served in the House of Representatives for the State of Texas representing District 71.
- Mr. Jones served honorably as a City Representative for District 4.
- Mr. Jones was instrumental in many community projects in Northeast El Paso as well as the City of El Paso overall.
- Mr. Jones was instrumental in the acquisition of the old Sears building which is now known as the Northeast Regional Command Center.
- As a civic leader and elected official, Mr. Jones played a vital role in economic development in Northeast El Paso.
- Mr. Jones started the first Juvenile Court Conference in El Paso and in the State of Texas.
- Mr. Jones additionally played a vital role in the development of Painted Dunes Golf Course, Cohen Stadium, Chuck Heinrich Park, Sue Young Park and many other civic endeavors.

Although there may be many other community members to be recognized for their accomplishment in this great city, Mr. Jones is, by far, the most deserving to be recognized for his significant achievements in this great City of El Paso and the State of Texas.

1/10/54 EA Sr

July 3, 1925 - February 11, 2008

Arves Edward Jones Sr. was a decorated World War II Veteran, independent small business owner, Texas State Representative, El Paso City Councilman, Governor NM-WT Optimist, Community activist Born in Nashville, Tennessee. Arves was the son of a Choctaw Indian father and an Irish mother. He was one of twelve children and because of The Great Depression was forced to leave home at an early age to find work. As a result, he traveled throughout America taking work wherever it could be found. He picked crops, dug ditches, and washed dishes in nearly 48 states. He had fond memories of the wheat fields of Kansas, the California orange groves and the Idaho potato farms. He also reminisced how picking cotton and strawberries was the hardest work that he had ever done. He met his wife of 62 years, Acelia Guzman, while working as a crane operator for the Southern Pacific Railroad. At age 16, Arves was the Extra Gang Foreman supervising over 100 employees and was responsible for millions of dollars of materials and equipment. He worked with two Apache Indians, Bonifacio Chavez and his future father-in-law Simon Guzman. Bonifacio had been a reservation policeman during the time of Cochise and worked diligently with Simon to teach Arves Spanish. As with many other young men during 1941, the attack on Pearl Harbor changed Arves' life dramatically. He enlisted in the U.S. Marine Corps in Deming, New Mexico on July 5, 1942 when he reached his 17th birthday. He had previously enlisted when he was only 15, but his mother found out and made him get out. He went through boot camp in San Diego, jump school at Camp Miramar and then on to Marine Raider Training at Camp Pendleton. A specially trained Marine, Arves became a member of an elite group of men that often preceded the main invasion forces. He and his squad worked behind enemy lines constantly and he quickly rose to the rank of Master Gunnery Sergeant of a Scout and Sniper Squad. He participated in Marine Corps operations in the Solomon Islands, Marshall Islands, Tarawa, Guam and Okinawa. He was wounded three times, a leg wound, an abdominal wound, and finally a head wound that ended his combat duty. Surgeons performed extremely delicate brain surgery to save his life and realistically did not expect him to live let alone recover without any residual neurological damage. A walking miracle, he was honorably discharged from the U.S. Marine Corps in 1945 after having been awarded the Navy Cross, Purple Heart with two clusters, Bronze Star with Cluster, Silver Star, two U.S. Navy Unit Citations, and one Presidential Unit Citation. The family moved to El Paso in 1948 and through his hard work, dedication to excellence, and willingness to better himself, became actively involved in his community. While working as the supervisor of the Bridge and Street Car Division of the El Paso City Lines, he attended night classes in business school, took correspondence courses and eventually became a self-taught accountant, businessman, and served on the Board of Directors of an El Paso bank. While working downtown on the bridges, he became associated with Father Harold J. Rahm and worked with young south side gang members. This began a long list of community activities. Arves Jones was involved in many activities of El Paso: Guadalupe Refugee Center, El Paso Boys Club, Organizing the first Cub Scout Pac in Northeast El Paso, Boy Scouts, Trans-Mountain Optimist Club, YMCA, Civic Leaders Council, Kiwanis, Rotary and many others. For his community activities he has twice been awarded El Paso's highest honor, The Conquistador Award, and was also twice awarded The Key to the City. Arves served on the El Paso Civil Service Commission, The El Paso Parks and Recreation Board, Organized the Northeast El Paso Teen Employment Program, Juvenile Court Conference Committee with Judge Henry Pena, Northeast Concerned Citizens, and helped create the Bicycle Moto-Cross Track in Northeast El Paso. He was also a member of the American Legion, Veterans of Foreign Wars, Eastside Civic Association and the Vietnam Veterans Memorial Coalition. Arves Jones was elected in 1982 to the Texas State Legislature and was re-elected twice more by a significant percentage. During this time he served on the Natural Resources, County Affairs, Vice-Chairman of Ways and Means, Chairman of County Affairs subcommittee, Chairman of County Fees and also on the Retirement and Aging Committee. During his time in Austin he was named as one of the most effective Legislators by Texas Monthly Magazine and identified as the second most highly decorated veteran serving in the Legislature. Arves was instrumental and a guiding force in passing legislation to rebuild Railroad Drive, Completion of the North-South Freeway and completion of Loop 375. During his tenure in the Texas Legislature "he sought action rather than headlines" (El Paso Times Sept.1987) and worked effectively on a variety of issues: repeal of the Blue Law, neighborhood -based homes for the retarded, stiffer DWI penalties, Proposition Zero to help finance education, higher salaries for teachers, clean air standards, limits on campaign spending and a consolidated statewide water plan. After leaving the Texas Legislature, Arves Jones served one term on the El Paso City Council and served as its Mayor Pro-Temp. During this time he was instrumental in locating Cohen Stadium to the Northeast, locating the El Paso Police Department Northeast Regional Command Center in its present location, the development of Painted Dunes Golf Course, the development of Sue Young Park and the creation of Chuck Heindrick Police Memorial Park. Despite his numerous accomplishments for the community, Arves rededicated himself to running the family business and staying active in the community. His pride and joy was his family which includes his loving wife of 62 years, Acelia Jones; three children; six grandchildren; 14 great grandchildren and 1 great-great granddaughter.

July 3, 1925 - February 11, 2008
