To who it may concern

My name is Beatriz Y. Mata I am a mother of a youth adult 28 Years old with autism. Based on my experience working with families with individuals with Intellectual and development disabilities for more than 20 years, I am certain in my ability to become a central member of your team.

I am a very active mother of a young/adult with autism committed with my community, member of several parent support groups and organizations helping families of individuals with disabilities, I am a presenter, speaker and advocate. Throughout my life I have met key people who have helped me to learn and educate myself about autism mainly, different disabilities and special education.

I have excellent communications and interpersonal skills; reliable, honest, well organized, caring and able to work efficiently with individuals with intellectual and development disabilities and their families. My enclosed resume will provide you with more details about my qualifications and skills.

Some of my experience:

- More than 20 years working with families with people with IDD (Intellectual and Developmental Disabilities)
- Organizing different kind of awareness events, like conferences, workshops, health fairs, run/walks and fundraisings.
- Advocacy and support to families

Thank you for your time and consideration.
