Legal Experience

Ms. Walker's practice primarily involves the areas of immigration, cross-border transactions and customs. Her immigration law practice primarily focuses on business and family based immigration, consular processing, employer sanctions, citizenship and naturalization, security checks, and admission issues. She has frequently provided testimony before Congress as well as the Texas House and Senate, has practiced on the border in El Paso for over 20 years. Her clients include hospitals and other health care providers, major global manufacturing companies, real estate and finance firms, investors, performing artists, families, and individuals.

Ms. Walker is the immediate past president of the American Immigration Lawyers Association ("AILA"), and is board certified in Immigration and Nationality Law by the Texas Board of Legal Specialization. She was selected to serve on the Council of Foreign Relations Independent Task Force on U.S. Immigration policy and has been chosen as one of the thirty women recognized in the "Extraordinary Women in Texas Law" publication of Texas Lawyer, 2008. In 2007, she was named as one of five "Go-To" lawyers in Texas in the area of immigration law by the Texas Lawyer. That same year she was also chosen as one of the Top 50 women lawyers in the state as well as among the Top 50 lawyers in the Central and West Texas region by the Texas Monthly's Super Lawyer edition. She has been listed in the Best Lawyers in America regarding immigration and nationality law since the category was included in the publication. In addition, she is listed in both the Chambers USA (Band One) and Global publications. In 2008, she is the only attorney from Texas recognized as one of seventeen most highly regarded lawyers globally in the International Who's Who of Corporate Immigration Lawyers publication.
