IN THE MUNICIPAL COURT OF APPEALS OF THE CITY OF EL PASO, TEXAS

Appellant appeals his conviction in Municipal Court for a speeding offense and not having a valid inspection sticker on his vehicle. Fines of $100.00 and $50.00 were assessed respectively.

No Statement of Facts is contained in this record, but Appellant does not attack the sufficiency of the evidence, but the underlying law supporting the offense as charged against him and his claim of status to be a preamble citizen and sovereign citizen of the Texas Republic, which he argues makes such laws inapplicable to him. Similar arguments which attempt to allow a person to unilaterally immunize him from the laws of the state have been held nonmeritorious. Scotka v. State 856 SW2d 790 (Tex. Civ. App. San Antonio 1993 no pet.) United States v. Masat, 948 F. 2d. 923 (Fifth Circuit 1991) The laws relating to the use of the highways of the State of Texas and the regulation of the traffic thereon are clearly applicable to Appellant.

The balance of Appellant's other points of error are also found to be without merit and are hereby overruled.

The judgment of the Trial Court is hereby affirmed in both cases.
