

IN THE MUNICIPAL COURT OF APPEALS
OF THE CITY OF EL PASO, TEXAS

NORMAN JURADO,

Appellant

vs.

STATE OF TEXAS,

Appellee

OPINION

Appellant appeals his conviction in Municipal Court for failing to maintain financial responsibility.

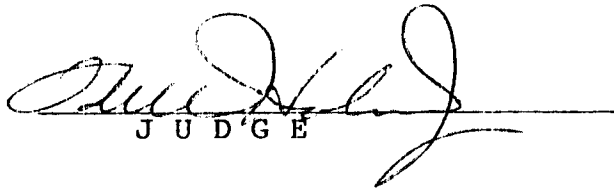

In a pro se brief, Appellant contends that he was wrongfully charged court costs because he was required to appear in Court without his consent. Appellant does not contest the validity of the conviction for the offense of operating a vehicle without insurance.

The Court costs which were assessed against Appellant are mandated by legislation, and must be paid whether one appears in Court or pays his fine.

THEREFORE, Appellant's contentions are without merit, and the trial court was correct in assessing the appropriate court costs.

Having found no reversible error, the Judgment of the trial court is affirmed.

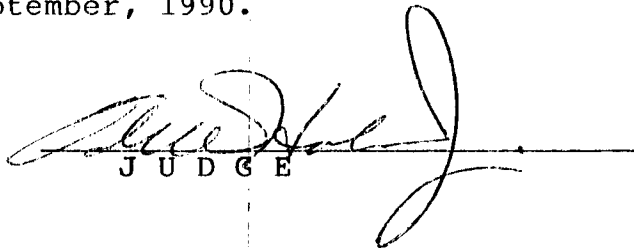

SIGNED this 4 day of September, 1990.
