OPINION

Appellant was cited on August 24, 2022 for driving while using a cell phone and failing to wear a seat belt.

The case was heard before the Court on November 28, 2022. Appellant was assessed a fine of $20.00, court costs of $134.00 and a $5.00 arrest fee on the seat belt violation and assessed a fine of $50.00, court costs of $81.00 and a $5.00 for driving while using a cell phone.

Appellant's files various pictures and two written statements arguing the trial court erred in finding him guilty. However, there is no record of the evidence introduced before the Trial Court, and the record before this Court indicates no record was requested by Appellant.

The trial court is the exclusive judge of the credibility of the witnesses and this Court cannot contradict the factual or legal findings of the Trial Court without a record to review.

As such, the trial court's judgments in each of the cases is affirmed.
